

THE DAILY CHRONICLE.

RULE & RICKS, Proprietors.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 20, 1872.

THE LARGEST CIRCULATION
Of Any Daily Published in East Tennessee.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President,

ULYSSES S. GRANT,

OF ILLINOIS.

For Vice President,

HENRY WILSON,

OF MASSACHUSETTS.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

For Governor,

HON. A. A. FREEMAN,

For Congress at Large,

HON. HORACE MAYNARD.

Electors at Large,

HON. ALVIN HAWKINS,

HON. JOHN TRIMBLE,

HON. L. C. HOUK.

It is not believed that the fact of Dr. Greeley swinging round the circle into Kentucky, denotes any particular danger to his cause. It is conceded by some Grant men that the Doctor will carry that State.

WHO FOR JOINT REPRESENTATIVE?

Under the recent apportionment fixing the representation in the Lower Branch of the Legislature, Knox and Anderson counties are entitled to a Floater, or Joint Representative. We presume the reciprocal policy heretofore observed between Knox and Anderson, that is, to elect the Representative from the counties alternately. We believe it is pretty generally understood that Judge Houk will be the candidate from Knox this year. Many of our most thoughtful men have expressed a desire to see him in the Legislature, and he having lived for many years and until recently in Anderson, we have no doubt his candidacy would be satisfactory to that county as well as Knox. While not disposed to scramble for it, he is willing to accept the position.

THE GUBERNATORIAL CANVASS.

Our Nashville exchanges of Wednesday morning give full accounts of the opening of the gubernatorial canvass at Lebanon on the previous day, by the three candidates, Gov. Brown, Col. Colyar and Mr. Freeman. Gov. Brown's speech was as usual full of glittering generalities. Among other things he stated that our State debt is increasing at the rate of nearly $1,200,000. Tax payers will make a note of this, and will ask the question in their own minds, why this rapid increase in the State debt, when we are enjoying profound peace.

He touches the railroad question very gingerly. He dwells on the amount of aid granted or loaned to the Mineral Home the Knoxville and Charleston and the Cumberland Gap roads, but according to the report of his organ, the Union and American, he says not a word about the Nashville and Northwestern, the Edgefield and Kentucky, the McMinnville and Manchester roads, which were sold at such a heavy loss to the State. He goes into a defense of the policy pursued by his administration in reference to the penitentiary, and gives a history of the transactions following this present lease. On the basis of past transactions, he figures up a clear profit to the State of $735,000 in five years, all of which sounds very well.

We trust he may find an opportunity before the canvass is over, to tell the people in detail how delinquent railroads were disposed of at a loss of more than ten millions of dollars.

ATTEMPTING ANOTHER DIVERSION.

There is nothing equal to the unblushing, deep-seated hypocrisy of a Democratic politician, who labors for the benefit of a corrupt ring of capitalists, whose chief business is to accumulate wealth by defrauding the State and swindling tax payers. So long as the eyes of honest people are turned in another direction, these rings will stand with grasping hands in the public treasury, and will carry on their system of plunder and robbery with perfect impunity. As long as they can take the one-hundredth part of what they steal, and subsidize a corrupt press to manufacture public opinion in their favor, and thus keep down suspicion, they regard it as a paying transaction. If by dispensing a few thousand dollars among their organs, they can keep down investigation into a swindle that amounts to ten millions, they will certainly do so. The only question they will ask is, how it is to be done?

If any one will take the trouble to read one of the "ring" organs in this State, for instance the "big organ" of this city, it will be seen how it expects to accomplish this and create a diversion from the acts of its masters. Although we have time and again alluded to the fact that railroads which cost the State nearly seventeen millions have been disposed of for a little more than six millions, involving a loss to the State of more than ten and a half millions, the "big organ" has not deigned to notice it, but raved day after day, through columns of stuff, about impeachment and other dead issues, in which the people have no present interest. Yesterday morning it devotes more than a column to show that Horace Maynard was once engaged in a plot to overthrow Gov. Senter and the State government. What interest do the people of Tennessee have in this question now? No one expects "reconstruction"—no one favors it—no one entertains any fears that it will be done. No one is disfranchised—no one favors the disfranchisement of any class, unless perhaps some Democrats are yet unconvinced to colored suffrage. No one but a lunatic recognizes that such a thing is possible or probable. It is to all intents and purposes a dead issue. Why, then, engage in its discussion? What is to be accomplished by it? Who is to be benefited by it?

The whole thing is a mere sham and the question is seized upon for the purpose of agitating the public mind on a subject of no present public interest, with a view of hiding the iniquities of theirings controlling our State Government. These same hypocrisies, in supporting Horace Greeley, write lengthy editorials, full of soft and plausible phrases about "letting the dead past bury its dead," and about forgetting "dead issues" while their whole time is taken up in an effort to cover up living issues, and to conceal from the people the acts of those who are and have been plundering the public treasury, with the sanction and by the assistance of our State rulers.

These are serious matters, and are worthy of the attention of our best and wisest men, as well as the masses in general. Our material interests have suffered as the result of mismanagement and corruption, and unless a change is made, will continue to suffer. If the people will not protect themselves from the rapacity of the plundering ring that has depleted the treasury and well nigh bankrupted our public credit, no one can tell what the end will be. We call upon them to consider their own interest before it is too late. Be not diverted from accomplishing your purposes of reform, by the siren song or honied words of the political stump speaker, or by the malicious ravings of paid organs, whose business is to serve the rings, but resolve to think and investigate for yourselves, and act according to the dictates of reason and patriotism. Then all will be well.

The Chattanooga Times is dreadfully alarmed, lest the Cincinnati Southern railroad should be located through Knoxville to Chattanooga. An outline of the various routes is given and the editor closes as follows:

This brings us to this end, and here we purposely make short work. It is Knoxville and the counties north of her, and Chattanooga and the counties north of her. It is to be no child's play. On this point we give our capitalists fair warning. It is true the road has to come to Chattanooga, unless the charter can be amended this winter; but coming through Knoxville to Chattanooga is to come to Chattanooga in general. Look at the map at Knoxville, and run your eye from thence to and through the cotton region, and then ask yourself such questions as the picture of the map suggests.

It is the interest of the great city of Cincinnati and the comparatively important city of Lexington, for the road to come through on an air line, but it is not to their interest to spend millions of money to accomplish that object.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

$500,000 Cash Distribution

THE GRAND GIFT CONCERT
A FIXED FACT.

SEPTEMBER 28th THE DAY.

YOUR TICKETS NOW OR NEVER.

THE VAST SALES OF TICKETS ALREADY made, and the increasing demand for them from all quarters having determined the Trustees that the Grand Gift Concert for the benefit of the Public Library of Knoxville, advertised for Saturday, September 28, 1872, shall positively come off on that day without postponement, the management now notifies all who expect to participate in the drawing that they should buy their tickets at once. Delay at a late hour causes many who wanted tickets at the concert in December last to go without them. Some living in Louisville, and others in other cities, have been disappointed, and even seventy-five dollars for tickets, which the day before, were sold at half price, and which, had they been sold at the regular price, would have cost them $100.00. These disappointments need not occur again if the warning now given in due season is heeded.

The drawing will begin precisely at 6 o'clock, Saturday morning, September 28, 1872, in the great hall of the Public Library Building, and continue until the one thousand gifts are all drawn.

One hundred performers, gathered from all parts of this country and from Europe, under the direction of Professor Hart, will contribute to this grand musical carnival. And to afford ample room for every ticket holder to enjoy such an unusual musical festival, the Concert will be given in Central Park, where arrangements have been made to accommodate all who may come. Persons holding whole, half or quarter tickets will be admitted to both the Concert and Drawing, and none without such tickets will be admitted to either.

PRICE OF TICKETS.
